except in locked closets or those hiding under dust-to-dust rat-infested beds and red soiled crisp white sheets the kkk doesn't have a corner market on lynch mob madness midwest farmers,
their distant cousins,
hide indian children in closets under bed covers in bars and wheat fields even in church basements don't tell me you don't see indians here you only wish our memories would silently disappear
